

Friends of the Library Book Sale and Bake Sale

September 22-29

The Friends of the South Plainfield Library are having another book sale Saturday September 23 at 9am and going through September 30. This year's donations include an exciting assortment of literary bargains. There will be something for everyone, from book club enthusiasts to book groupies. The Friends will also be selling AV materials (DVDs, CDs). There will be a bake sale on the first day so you can buy a sweet treat to go along with your great finds!

All proceeds will go to the Friends who help the library with programming and also sponsor our very popular museum pass program.

We hope to see you there!!!
