

The Sixties: The British Invasion

Rock historian Vincent Bruno will present a lecture that will focus on the phenomenon rise of the British pop and rock acts that invaded our shores in the 60's. From pop groups (The Beatles, The Dave Clark 5, The Animals, The Kinks) to the psychedelic and progressive bands (The Who, Pink Floyd, Cream, Traffic). We will explore highlights from landmark recordings that clearly defined this British pop renaissance era. Our journey will also include aspects of British popular culture (cinema, fashion, TV and UK underground) whose influence added to the impact of this remarkable decade.
