

Chinese Calligraphy and Brush Painting Workshop

This hands-on workshop will start with a description of Chinese calligraphy and the proper way to hold the brush and how to use the writing set. This will be followed by a demonstration and practice writing a few characters.

The second part of the class will be a description, demonstration and practice of Chinese brush painting. This workshop will be taught by Ms. Hua Jiang from the Renaissance Chinese Opera Society.

Ms. Jiang has over 15 years of teaching experience in Fine Arts specialized in Chinese Calligraphy and Chinese Painting. She graduated with a Master Degree in Fine Arts from Nanjing University of the Arts 南京艺术学院, one of the most prestige fine arts institution in China. She has been obsessed with Calligraphy and Chinese Painting since she was young. Calligraphy has been widely practiced across Asia. It's not just Chinese writings, it's an art that requires the use of inner energy and motion. Chinese Calligraphy has developed in many different forms.

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 3 2PM

LIMIT OF 18

REGISTRATION REQUIRED