Presents:

DRIVE BY HISTORY: A SCREENING WITH KEN MAGOS

The South Plainfield Public Library, welcomes Ken Magos who will be joined by recurring guest co-host and expert Rich Veit for a brief presentation on the show. Featured in the presentation will be segments from Season 3 episodes on the Legend of the Jersey Devil and Point Breeze, the one-time home of Joseph Bonaparte.

Drive By History, now in pre-production for its fourth season on NJTV, is a television show inspired by regional historical markers. Host Ken Magos doesn't just stop and read those signs, he delves deeper into these histories with the help of staff historian Anthony Bernard, along with local experts and historians, uncovering rare details about these unique locations, individuals, and events.
