

Friends of the Library Membership Application

The Friends of the Library is an organization that advocates for the library and provides funding for a variety of programs, events, and supplies. We meet once a month on the 4th Thursday from September to June. Dues are collected annually or you can become a lifetime member for a one-time donation of $100. Joining the Friends is a great way to show support for the library!

Simply complete the form below and return it to the circulation desk at the library. As a thank you for your support, you receive the following benefits:

- A personalized membership card
- A Friends of the Library tote bag and pen

Membership runs from September 1 to August 31 each year
