

Liquid Assets License Suspended After Brawl

The Borough Council slapped a 45-day liquor license suspension on Liquid Assets, a gentleman's club located on New Market Avenue, following a formal hearing on March 8. The maximum penalty could have resulted in a license suspension for 70 days.

Liquid Assets manager John Colasanti faced the council to answer charges stemming from a "near riot" that occurred at the club on January 15.

The charges arose after the incident required approximately 35 police officers from South Plainfield, Plainfield, Piscataway and Edison to be called to the scene to disburse the brawling crowd. No arrests were made.

Liquid Assets was formally charged with allowing the brawl and disturbance to take place because they failed to ensure adequate security to handle the crowd of approximately 150 to 200 people.

According to the testimony of

Sgt. Wayne Diana, a crowd of 150 to 200 people were present on the premises at approximately 1:30 a.m. when multiple fights broke out. He immediately called all South Plainfield police on duty to the scene and asked for assistance from neighboring police departments. Six officers from Edison, 12 from Plainfield and 10 from Piscataway responded to assist.

Sgt. Diana testified that when he entered the club and witnessed the brawl, he was concerned for his safety and that of the other responding officers. He added that he had to use OC Spray (pepper spray) to disburse the crowd.

Colasanti, who was in charge of operating the bar that night, testified that a large crowd was on hand because a special act was scheduled to perform that night. He said that he retained six security personnel, which was double the normal security detail in (Continued on page 10)

Council Introduces Municipal Budget

By Jane Dornick

At a special public meeting held on Monday evening, the Borough Council introduced the 2012 calendar year municipal budget to be submitted to the state.

Preliminary figures show an increase of approximately $905,000 over last year to $26,250,574. Based on that number, the tax levy will be $17,487,443. State aid is commensurate with last year at $2,718,000. The remainder of the anticipated revenue to comprise $26M comes in the form of miscellaneous monies such as court and permit fees and other sources.

Ratables are down $1.7M from last year to $1,416,666,865. Healthcare costs for employees have also risen over last year.

Last year the Library Board of Trustees contributed $146,302 to the budget for tax relief, but have yet to fill out the necessary paperwork to do so. CFO Glenn Cullen stated that with the current tax levy figure of $17M.

a tax increase of approximately $78 a year per home with an average assessed value of $122,900.

Other sources that are forecast to add revenue to the budget to lower the tax levy before its adoption is storm relief from FEMA in the amount of $100,000. Additionally, there are anticipated borough land sales that could potentially total another $200,000.

According to Council President and Finance Committee Chair Ray Rusnak, "The state requires that we introduce the municipal budget prior of April 30.

to the end of March. I am positive that the introduced budget and adopted budget will be completely different. The challenges we face are the reduced revenues along with reduced surplus due to last year's hurricane and October snow storm, while moving the borough in a positive direction. It is still a work in progress, and we will meet the challenge head on."

Cullen hopes to be able to "cut a few more points" off the tax rate before the next public hearing date

In My Opinion

Opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily those of the publisher, nor do we guarantee accuracy.

To the Mayor and Council:

Just one question for the mayor and council. Why?

One legitimate reason why you are getting rid of Joann Graf as borough clerk. One honest answer, not just because you can.

I'm sure most of the town would like to know as well.

FLORENCE DECKER

Dear South Plainfield Residents,

The South Plainfield Police Athletic League (PAL) is a locally operated, volunteer-driven organization that is sponsored by the local law enforcement agency, but receives no direct funding from it. The South Plainfield Police Athletic League relies, in large part, on the support of the private sector. Over the past 10 years our local Police Athletic League has been able to operate without soliciting funds. During that time period the South Plainfield Police Athletic League has done the following:

· Increased the chance of academic success for the youth in PAL programs by providing annual scholarships to help these student-athletes achieve future goals;

· Provided support to all of South Plainfield's youth athletic programs, most recently sponsoring wrestlers and cheerleaders in local, statewide, and national events;

· Donated money to South Plainfield High School sports to update the high school weight training facilities; and · Lent support to residents in need, by organizing fundraising events in the name of the recipient or by monetary donations to provide assistance.

Please consider lending your support to the South Plainfield Police Athletic League by making a mon-

When I hear veterans' hardships and now some are becoming homeless, I cringe at the thought. What is going on dear Senators and Congress? When I found out that some veterans' posts are increasingly dependent on the sales or donations given on the small paper awaiting the outcome of more than one million claims for government benefits like disability or education promised them and thousands more are waiting for a VA doctor's appointment. Thousands of our veterans are on a seemingly endless waiting list-many gravely ill-feeling forgotten and alone.

Volunteers Needed for Litter Cleanup Week

The South Plainfield Clean Communities Advisory Board will sponsor a borough-wide cleanup the last week in April. The main clean up event will be on Saturday morning, April 21. Volunteers will meet from 9 to 10 a.m. at the Municipal Building, 2480 Plainfield Ave., to collect equipment and cleanup assignments. They will target roadsides, parks, streams and vacant lots. Residents are welcome to organize a crew, or to come on their own. All volunteers are invited back to Borough Hall at noon for a free, pickup picnic.

Donations to School District Benefit Donors and School

By Libby Barsky

At almost every monthly Board of Education agenda meeting there is mention of donations to the school, district by individuals or by companies. There is usually no comment made by the board or administrators; the items are listed on the agenda to be read as a matter of record.

The March agenda meeting was no different. Three donations were noted; two of which were items the owners no longer needed. An upright Baldwin piano valued at $2,000 was donated to Grant School, and laboratory equipment valued at $150 was donated to the high school from J.H. Berge Inc. of 411 South Clinton Ave.

The third item was a hands-on gift by the Future Stars Parent Group to paint the bottom of the gym in the Roosevelt Administration Building at an estimated cost of $1,000.

Other previous donations of books and money include 25 children's books valued at $500 to the Kennedy School library by the Cotoia Family. This is an annual donation in remembrance of Mrs. Cotoia, who taught at Kennedy School for many years.

The Plainfields Chapter of UNICO donated 11 copies of the book, It Happened in Italy, by Elizabeth Bettina. The book tells the story of the citizens of the small town of Campagna, Italy who converted a convent into a shelter to protect Jews from the Nazis during World War II.

In addition, Home Team Marketing made a $500 donation to the district's athletic program.

In December, the board accepted a donation of furniture from South Field Crown Realty LLC of Craigwood Road. The items, which went to the high school, included two cherry desks, an oval desk, four tables, two wood shop cabinets and four light fixtures. Other items included file cabinets, room dividers, a round table and a mahogany desk.

During tax season, individuals and companies consider what they no longer need, whether these items might benefit the school district and if the donation qualifies as a tax

For information on donating, call the administration office at (908) 754-4620.

G&WLabsWins Glitter Award

Stephen Greene, vice president and general council of G&W Laboratories, recently accepted the South Plainfield Clean Business Association's (CBA) Glitter Award. CBA President Joseph Diegnan presented the certificate and Glitter Award sign to Greene at 301 Helen St., one of the company's three buildings in South Plainfield.

G&W Laboratories was founded by Carl Greenblatt in 1919 and moved into the borough in 1977, when they built their pharmaceuticals factory at 111 Coolidge St. Since then, they purchased 301 Helen St. in 1995 and 101 Coolidge St. in 1999. Several expansions and renovations were needed as they grew over the years. This is a fourth generation privately owned business and is a leading national supplier of generic prescription and over the counter pharmaceuticals, specializing in suppositories and topical ointments, creams and gels. They currently employ 275 people, working three shifts.

The business, a longtime CBA member, is located adjacent to the Dismal Swamp, and the natural beauty of the wooded area enhances the landscaped grounds and handsome buildings. Outdoor maintenance is handled by A-Tech Landscaping, which keeps the grounds trim and litter free. Greene noted that their biggest problem is not litter, but the Canada Geese population. As a pharmaceutical manufacturer, G&W cannot afford to have people tracking bacteria from goose feces into the facility. They solve this problem by having all personnel entering manufacturing areas put booties on over their shoes.

Membership in the CBA is open to all businesses that share its goal of enhancing the appearance of commercial districts through property maintenance and litter control.

Officer Grasso placed the operator, a 25 year-old male, under arrest for an active warrant and subsequent to his investigation, seized 176 Roxicodone pills, marijuana and $1,652 cash.

Officer Michael Grasso was awarded the Honorable Service Medal for this incident. Officer Roberto Vega and Detective Gary Cassio were awarded a Letter of Commendation for assisting in the arrest and recovery of the drugs.

Honorable Service Medal

Awarded to Officer Brian Iarrapino; Letter of Commendation; Awarded to Officer Peter Magnani and Officer Steven Perhach

On August 19, 2011 at 3 p.m., Officers Brian Iarrapino, Peter Magnani, Stephen Perhach, Sherlyn Courtney and John Petriello responded to the area of 192 Garden Drive on a report of a strong armed robbery that just occurred. The victim, a 51 year-old female taxi driver, reported that five black males entered her vehicle in Plainfield and were transported to Garden Drive. When they arrived, the males forcibly took her purse, cell phone and cash and fled the vehicle. Officer Iarrapino recalled a previous incident the prior day involving similar suspects and he and other officers responded to a house on Robert Place, where they located the five male suspects hiding in the residence. One suspect, an 18 year-old male, resisted arrest and was forcibly taken into custody. The victim's property was recovered in the home by Officer Magnani.

Officer Iarrapino was awarded the Honorable Service Medal for this incident. Officers Peter Magnani and Stephen Perhach were awarded a Letter of Commendation for assisting in the arrests and recovery of merchandise.

Officer Ahmed Stuckey

On September 11, 2011 at 1:09 a.m., Officer Mark Hollain observed an occupied vehicle parked in the Liquid Assets Gentleman's Club parking lot, with a female seated in the driver's seat. Officer Hollain approached the vehicle and found the 25 year-old female sleeping. Officer Ahmed Stuckey arrived as a back-up. Officer Hollain observed a handgun on the passenger seat of the vehicle. The driver was arrested and a loaded Hi Point 40 caliber handgun was seized.

Officers Mark Hollain and Ahmed Stuckey were awarded the Honorable Service Medal for this incident.

Honorable Service Medal

Awarded to Sergeant Peter Papa; Letter of Commendation Awarded to Detective Anthony Pacillo and Officer Kenneth Parada

On December 15, 2011, Sergeant Peter Papa, Detective Anthony Pacillo and Officer Kenneth Parada were assigned to a N.J. Motor Vehicle Commission Inspection Detail on Stelton Road. Officer Parada directed a 2006 Chevy Impala into the staging area, as it was not inspected. Sergeant Papa spoke to the driver and subsequently detected the odor of raw marijuana in the vehicle. Sergeant Papa observed marijuana in plain view and subsequent to the driver's arrest and further investigation, located 372 bags of heroin, 30 bags of crack cocaine, 31 bags of marijuana, a large bag of marijuana, a scale and packaging material. The driver, a 41 year-old male, was charged with distribution of CDS. His vehicle and $2,500 cash was seized.

Sergeant Peter Papa was awarded the Honorable Service Medal for this incident. Officer Kenneth Parada and Detective Anthony Pacillo were awarded a Letter of Commendation for participating in the arrest.

Life Saving Medal

Awarded to Officer Michael Molinaro, Officer Mark Hollain; Civilian Letter of Commendation Awarded to Franco Campanella

On January 21, 2010, Officers Molinaro and Hollain responded to West Nassau Avenue on a report of an unconscious male. Upon arrival, a neighbor, Franco Campanella, was administering CPR. The officers took over CPR and hooked up the defibrillator. A shock was delivered and CPR was continued until the pulse was regained. The patient was later transported to JFK Hospital where he made a full recovery. Without the early application of CPR by Franco Campanella and continued CPR and quick use of the AED by the responding officers, the patient would not have survived.

Life Saving Medal

Awarded to Officer Peter Magnani and Communications Operator Darleen Marin

Officer Peter Magnani responded to a radio call reporting an imminent childbirth in a vehicle located in front of police headquarters. Officer Magnani, Communications Operator Darleen Marin and Firefighter Joe Abbruzzesse assisted with the delivery. The infant was three months premature and breech. After a delicate delivery with complications, it was determined the newborn had no pulse and was not breathing. Magnani and Marin performed CPR on the newborn. Marin continued CPR in the ambulance during transport and Officer Magnani responded to the Rescue Squad to get an additional ambulance so the mother could be transported to the hospital for treatment. Due to the quick and resourceful thinking of these first responders, not only was a new baby brought into this world under extremely difficult circumstances, but that baby was revived and given an opportunity at life.

Free Oral Cancer Screening for Adults At Middlesex County College

Middlesex County College will host an oral cancer screening for adults on Tuesday, April 17 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Dental Hygiene Clinic in EHommedieu Hall on the Edison campus. The event is free and open to the public; preregistration is not necessary. The noon to 1 p.m. hour is reserved for college faculty, staff and students; any adult is welcome from 9 a.m. to noon.

"April is Oral Cancer Awareness Month and it is a good time to focus on this issue," said Lynn Tobin, adjunct faculty member in the college's Dental Hygiene program.

"It is a disease that is often curable n if you catch it early, but can be fatal if not diagnosed in time. Oral cancer kills more than 8,000 people a year."

Anyone who receives a screening will be entered into a drawing for either an Oral B Power Toothbrush ($160 value) or a Sonicare power toothbrush ($110 value).

The screenings are aimed at those 18 and over. The procedure, which takes about 10 minutes once the patient is in the dental chair, will be performed by volunteer dentists and oral surgeons.

From the South Plainfield Library Bookmarks

By Kenneth Morgan

As we finish up the month of May... sorry, the month of March (well, it sure felt like May outside), here's some news from the South Plainfield Library.

The library will close at 5 p.m. on Friday, March 30 so that staff may attend Sundra Randolph's retirement party. We'll be open on Palm Sunday for our usual Sunday hours, 1:30 to 5 p.m.; however, we'll be closed on Good Friday, April 6 and on Easter Sunday, April 8.

Next week, there'll be a few changes to our normal schedule of children's programs. First, we'll have the Monday Morning Movie, featuring a video presentation for toddlers, at 10:30. Storytime, for children ages three and over, will be held on Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. and Thursday at 1:15 p.m. And Time for 2s & 3s, for children age two and three, is set for Wednesday and Thursday mornings at 10:30.

Regarding the changes, the Wednesday storytime has been cancelled. Instead, there's the children's program, Move Along, featuring Mr. Scott the Music Man held over at the Senior Center (just down the street, past the helicopter) at 6:30 p.m. The program is for children of all ages; no pre-registration is required. In lieu of an admission fee, please bring non-perishable food items for the Middlesex County Community Food Drive. Also, due to the Friday closing, that day's Babytime program has been cancelled.

As for the rest of the week's programs, there's the Monday Night Movie, presenting a recently-released movie on DVD, which is set for 6:30. You don't need to register for the showing. Please call the library for title and content information.

In other news, you probably already know that the Ides of April (aka tax day) is fast approaching. We still have some federal tax forms and instruction booklets available, as well as access to other tax publications and information. If you need any of this information or access to related resources, please stop in while you can. And, be advised, our library staff members aren't tax experts, so we can't give out advice on how to fill out your return.

Here are some reminders from our notary public: it's always best to have full information about the document to be notarized before you get to the library. Our notary is not an attorney or an expert on legal documents; he can answer general questions about

Tips Regarding Tip Income

If your pay from work involves compensation through tips, be aware of a few facts about tip income. Here are four key points to keep in mind:

the notarization process, but, like the tax matter previously noted, is prohibited from giving more specific advice or information. So, be sure you know what you need and have double-checked your documents. Also, if you need witnesses for your document, it's preferable that you bring your own and that they be fully informed about what they'll be signing. This will allow the process to run smoothly and with a minimum of hassle for everyone (which is always a good thing).

Finally, you might be aware that today is the last day of work (well, work around here, anyway) for our retiring director, Sundra Randolph. If you haven't already, feel free to stop by and wish her well. Then, on Monday, you can stop by again and wish our incoming director, Linda Hansen, good luck as she takes the reins. (The rest of us aren't going anywhere at present, but you can say hello to us, too.)

That's about all for now. For more information, check our website at www.southplainfield.lib.nj.us, visit us on Facebook at www.facebook. com/southplainfieldlibrary, or call us at (908) 754-7885. See you in... whatever month is next. It's tough to keep track of them anymore.

The recycling center and the yard waste site will be open as usual from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 7.

Regular hours at the recycling center are 12 to 7 p.m. on Tuesdays, and 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. The yard waste site is on its summer schedule, open from 12 to 7 p.m. on Tuesdays and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays.
