

Adult “Crafternoon” at the Library

Join us at the library for a fun filled “crafternoon” with artist Joy Ann Cabanos who will demonstrate how to create origami works of art for adults. The kids are doing it and having fun, now it's time for you to have your turn! All materials will be provided for this program.

Joy is a visual artist who works in acrylics, watercolors, pastels and mixed media. Her paintings have been featured in galleries here and abroad. She learned Origami as a little girl, but re-discovered it 6 years ago when she organized a community-based “10,000 Cranes Project” across Westfield, Summit & other towns.
