

South Plainfield Library Event:

Presentation & Book Signing

By Author Joseph Belardo

Thursday, July 6, 2017

7 p.m.

Dusterman is a transcript of Joe's diary and memoirs, including photographs, while he served in Vietnam in a specialized Army mobile combat team and body recovery unit called "Dusters" attached to the Third Marine Division along the DMZ in 1967 and 1968 during the infamous TET Offensive.

Joe and his crew hold the distinct honor of being the last American's to leave the finally abandoned Khe Sanh Combat Base.

He has appeared in two television documentaries: The Soldiers Story and Vietnam War with Oliver North. He is an author who has been published in the book The Soldiers Story – Vietnam in Their Own Words, Vietnam Magazine – Dusters Battle for Route 9, The Khe Sanh book of Poetry and the Khe Sanh Magazine "Red Clay".

Joe's medals include the Bronze Star with Valor, Purple Hearts and numerous Army and Marine Corps medals and Citations.

